Honors Art for 8th Graders

Who: Mr. Llanos

When: Monday; 2:25PM-3:05PM

Where: Room UA-3

Do you love to make art and grow your creative skills? Dig in with advanced materials, pencils, and digital media! Experiment with new ideas, grow as an artist, and spend time virtually with classmates who share your interests! Work at your own pace and choose your areas of concentration. Students may participate in the Portfolio Project Review sponsored by the New York State Art Teachers Association. Join us for a special 8th grade only art club time!

Autism Speaks

Who: Ms. Schwartz

When: Tuesday; 3:05PM-3:50PM

Where: Room UA-5

Autism Speaks will raise awareness for Autism and acceptance of everyone's differences. We will promote a culture of inclusivity of all different types of students here at Fox Lane Middle School. Club members will achieve this by organizing fun events and fundraisers for everyone in our community to participate in!

FLMS Book and Film Club

Who: Mrs. Levine

When: Friday; 2:25PM-3:05PM

Where: Library Media Center (LMC)

This is a student-driven book club and film club that will raise social and emotional awareness. Windows and mirrors will play an important role, while students broaden their understanding of the world, and of themselves, through a variety of storytelling experiences.

Cabaret

Who: Mr. Vanacoro and Ms. Tooker

When: Monday; 2:25PM-3:05PM

Where: Suzanne Grant Theater

Cabaret is open to all students who want to sing, dance, act, or otherwise perform. There is no audition required and students will perform musical theater selections, make student rock bands together, learn rock tunes, act out scenes from plays and films, and more!

C.A.T.C.H. (Conversations About Tolerance Civility and Humanity)

Who: Ms. Filner

When: Friday; 2:25PM-3:05PM

Where: Room E210

Are you interested in exploring and discussing issues of the day? Do you have strong opinions that you would like to share? Are you interested in hearing different points of view? If so, then C.A.T.C.H. Club may be the place for you! Topics are student initiated and address the concerns of young people. The hope is that, through meaningful dialogue and thoughtful consideration of issues, students will come together to help develop a more tolerant, civil, and humane community for all.

Chess Club

Who: Mr. Lepre

When: Monday; 2:25PM-3:05PM

Where: LMC

Chess is one of the oldest and most popular games in the world with a history stretching back over a thousand years! In Fox Lane Middle School's Chess Club you will get to practice and test your skills against your fellow foxes. Whether you already know how to play chess or are interested in learning, Chess Club is a place to learn, practice, play, and above all: have fun while making friends among those who love to compete in this classic game of strategy.

Erika's Lighthouse at FLMS

Advisors: Ms. Carbonaro & Ms. Signorile

Meeting Days: Tuesdays; 2:25PM-3:05PM

Location: Room E208

Our empowerment and leadership club will be opened to all 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students who want to create a more positive and inclusive school culture surrounding mental health. Dialogue is the best way to reduce the stigma of adolescent depression and when students talk, other students listen.

The Essence Club

Who: Ms. Doctor

When: Monday; 2:25PM-3:05PM

Where: Room E202

The Essence Club will provide an opportunity for all students to learn, share, and celebrate African American and other Black cultures from around the world. Students will create and participate in activities and discussions, focusing on topics such as food, music, and the community. We look forward to you seeing you there!

Fox Fans

Who: Ms. McGinn and Ms. Rego

When: Thursday; 2:25PM-3:05PM

Where: Room E207

Do you have school spirit and want to share it with the whole school but not sure how to do that? Join Fox Fans! We will create a monthly newsletter to keep the FLMS community up-to-date on all upcoming events raising school spirit. Throughout the year we will organize themed spirit days, school wide events, give back projects connected to the school and school community, and more! So grab your pom poms, spirit wear, and bring your ideas to make FLMS an ever better place to be!

FOX LANE MIDDLE SCHOOL

After School Student Activity Clubs 2023-2024

One Earth

Who: Ms. Schwartz

When: Monday; 3:05PM-3:50PM

Where: Room UA-1

The club will raise awareness about environmental issues (global warming, recycling, nature conservation, climate change, pollution, etc.) and reduce environmental impact as individuals, a school community, and as citizens of the world through fun activities and projects.

Pride in Purple

Who: Ms. Filner

When: Tuesday; 2:25PM-3:05PM

Where: Room E210

Do you think all people in our school and in our community deserve to feel respected and accepted? We work to make students feel safe and secure regardless of anyone's race, religion, social class, gender identity, or sexual orientation. If you want to be part of making a difference, especially for those who may not feel that they can speak out themselves, come join us!

Sewing Club

Who: Ms. Sanchez and Mrs. Pokorne

When: Thursday; 2:25pm-3:05pm

Where: UA-2

The sewing club aims to guide students through many processes related to textiles and sewing. Students can also have the opportunity to engage in design, research and execution of both personal sewing projects, as well as costumes for the Fox Lane Middle School musical. We strive to create a bridge between the sewing club at FLMS to the design program at FLHS. In our collaboration, high school students serve as mentors, models, and inspiration for the middle school sewing club students.

Spanish Club

Who: Ms. Sanchez and Ms. Alicea

When: Tuesday; 2:25PM-3:05PM

Where: Room W205

Everyone is welcome to learn, understand, and expand their knowledge of the Spanish-speaking culture and language. The group meets to participate in activities, learn more about Spanish-speaking cultures and share what we learn with our school community. Activities are determined by club members and can include anything from watching a movie, cooking, crafting, and playing games. All meetings are in English and Spanish.

Student Government

Who: Mrs. Levine and Ms. Esmond

When: Tuesday; 2:25PM-3:05PM

Where: LMC

Student Government is a club that promotes school spirit and builds fellowship and leadership skills. Student Government is a vehicle for students to share ideas on improving our school and the FLMS experience through support and respect for each other. There will be a student-wide election to elect officers who will represent grade levels. All members of Student Government will collaborate to organize and run various events and fundraising activities throughout the year.
